Social and Personal &

A brilliant and fashlonable society event was the marriage at 6 P. M. yeaterday, in the ball room of the Richmona Hotel, of Miss Rae V. Hessburg, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hessburg, of No. 1004 West Franklin Street, to Mr. I. M. Hessburg, a prominent New York banker, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hessburg, of New York etty.

The beautiful ball room of the Rich-The beautiful ball room of the richmond, where the ceremony was performed, was decorated with palms and smilax, and brilliantly lighted by electricity. Professor Stein's orchestra played the wedding march as the bridal party advanced to the altar. The marriage ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. Dr. Edward N. Cellisch.

formed by the Rev. Dr. Edward M. Calisch,
The bride entered with her father. She was exquisitely gowned in point lace over chiffon and liberty satin. Her vell was held in place by a wreath of gardenias, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilles of the valley.
The bridegroom was attended by Mr. L. M. Meyer and Mr. J. Lippman, of New York; Mr. I, Meyer, Mr. H. Sterzelbach and Mr. L. Gunst, of Brooklyn, New York.

York. ter the ceremony a reception was After the ceremony a reception was held, followed by a gorgeous wedding supper served in the rathskeller of the field. The superb table decorations were done by Mr. W. A. Materne, formerly of Sherry's, New York, but now occupying the position of steward at the Richmond. The tables formed a hollow square, covered by the snowy lineh damask cloths, which extended down, an attractive grouping of palms placed within tractive grouping of palms placed ask cloths, which extended down, an attractive grouping of paims placed within it, giving the square the appearance of a white carpeted court.

From the four corners of the square ropes of smilax, caught with large bunches of pluk ribbon, extended to the ceiling. Crystal candelabra, with pink ahades, were placed at the inner and quter corners, where loops of broad pink ribbon depended. Four great placques of pink carnations and maidenhair ferns ornamented the centers of the tables and were linked together by wreaths of smilax and carnations.

Thirty-eight covbrs were laid and the gleam of silver and cut glass, mingled with the fragrance and loveliness of the flowers, rendered the scene indescribably rich and elegant.

ably rich and elegant. and Mrs. Hessburg left last nghi for a bridal trip. They will make their home in New York at its close.

Hepburn-Houghton Hepburn—Houghton

The approaching marriage of Mr. Norval T. Hepburn, the youngest son of the Rev. S. S. Hepburn, to Miss Kate Houghton, of New York, has been announced. Miss Houghton has been ilving in Baltimore for a year past, and the marriage is scheduled to take place in Christ Church, that city, June 6th, at 2 P. M.

The young couple will then sail for Europe. Mr. Hepburn, who is now a student at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, expects to continue his studies in Vienna during the summer. No cards of invitation will be sent out.

Turpin-Bradshaw.

At noon of Wednesday, June 1st. the wedding of Miss Lula Manson Bradshaw and Mr. David Laprade Turpin, of Powhatan county, was celebrated in the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. James C. Martin, of Grove Road, near Auburn Avenue, The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Martin Johnson, of the Episcenic Church.

burg, Va.

Mr. Turpin is the son of the late Dr.
William T. Turpin, of Powhatan, and has long been connected with the public schools of that county.

Among the relatives and friends who willinessed the marriage were Mrs. M. C.
Fowles, of Greenwood. Powhatan, the mother of the bride; Mrs. Milton Cayce,
Mrs. Martin Johnson, Mrs. Hervey, Mrs.
Mrs. Martin Johnson, Mrs. Lervey, Mrs. Mrs. Martin Johnson, Mrs. Jervey, Mrs. D. B. Watkins, Mrs. Kirk, Miss V. Coleman, Mrs. H. R. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baker, of Hallsbore; Miss Mattle Baker, Messrs. W. U. Kennon and Charles Henley, and Dr. Tompkins, of Powhatan. Mr. and Mrs. Turpin will make their future home in Powhatan.

Commencement Exercises.

Commencement Exercises.

Much interest is felt in Richmond in regard to the commencement exercises of the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton. Va., where a number of young Richmond ladies are students, and where Miss Lelia Skipwith Blair, the daughter of Mr. Lewis H. Blair, will be a full graduate in the school of music.

The commencement sermon will be preached in Emmanuel Church Sunday, June 5th, at 11 o'clock A. M., by the Rev. Melville Balley, of New York.

At the commencement concert Monday evening, June 6th, 8 o'clock, the following attractive programme will be rendered:

Part I.

Part I.
|Chorus—(a) Florian's Song .......Godard
(b) The Wanderer's Night Song, Chorus Class,

Miss Anna Goldsborough.

Piano Solo-Spinnied Litolff
Miss Adelaide Myer.
Vocal Solo-Sognal Schra
Miss' Elise Wilson.

Piano Quartette-Polacca Brilliant, Misses Marie Talbott, Lelia Snyder, Lizzie Cochran, Jonna Laws Voca, Solo-Aprili Aprili....... Miss Marie Clark.

game.

To him came presently Jack Meredith, the same gentle-mannered man, with an incongruously brown face and quick eyes seeing all. It is not, after all, the life that makes the man. There are gentle backwoodsmen, and ruffman seeing among those who is right of the life among those who is reflected in drawing-rooms. Well, said Meredith, following the glance of his riend's eye as he surveyed his men.

his men.
Oscard took his pipe from his lips and icoked bravely at him.
"Don't half like it, you know." he said in a low voice; for Durnovo was talking with a head-porter a few yards away.
"Don't half like what—the flavor of that pipe? It looks a little strong."
"No, leaving you here." replied Oscard.
"Oh, that's all right, old chap! You can't take me with you, you know. I intended to stick to it when I came away from home, and I am not going to turn back now."

can't take me with you you will came away from home, and I am not going to turn back now.

Oscard gave, a queer little upward jerk of the head, as if he had just collected further evidence in support of a theory which chronically surprised him. Then he turned away send looked down over the vast untrodden tract of Africa that lay isence them. He kept his eyes fixed there, after the manner of a man who has no fluency in personal comment.

"You know," he said, jerkly, "I didn't think—I meen you're not the sort of chap I took you for. When I first saw you I thought you were a bit of a dandy and—sail that. Not the sort of a man for this work, I thought that the thing was bound to be a failure. I knew Durnovo, and had no faith in him, You've got a gentle way shout you, and your clothes are so confoundedly neat. But—" Here he paused and pulled down the folds on his Norfilk jacket. "But I liked the way you sont that leopard the day we first met."

"Beastly fluka," put in Meredith, with

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day. Try pared in two inlinets. No boiling! no baking! add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors:—Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry, Get a package at your grocers to-day. Io cia.

Wedding Gifts.

We have an exquisite collection of the latest designs in Sterling Silverware and Rich Cut-Glass, that will please June brides.

Graduation Gifts.

Inexpensive, dainty gifts, appropriate graduation-gifts of intrinsic worth-which will be treasured by the graduate and forever recall the giver's generosity. Let us show you the latest novelties.

Schwarzschild Bros.,

Leading Jewelers, Cor. Second & Broad Sts.

Mrs. J. Graham Davidson. Quartette-Overture, Der Misser Louise Fontaine, Adelaide Myer, Chorus Class.

The closing exercises, with the awarding of medals, scholarships and diplomas, will be held Tuesday, June 7th, at 11 A. M.

Brothers-Teske.

The home of Mrs. G. J. Gore, of No. 1113 Twentleth Street, was the scene of a pretty home wedding Wednesday evening at 3:20 o'clock, when her sister, Miss Augusta Teske, became the wife of Mr. W. A. Brothers, in the presence of a large number of friends of the young couple, who had gathered to witness the

At the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, rendered by Miss Ida. Dillard, the bridal party entered the front Dillard, the bridal party entered the faont parlor, where the Rev. J. S. Hunter performed the ceremony.

"O. Promise Me" was softly played during the ceremony, after which the happy young couple held an informal reception and received the congratulations of all present. The guests was a constant of the congratulations of all present. reception and received the congratula-tions of all present. The guests were then ushered into the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Brothers left for a Northern trip. They will reside with the bride's father, near Gien Dale, upon their return.

The bride, who is an attractive and popular young lady, was becomingly attired in blue canvas cloth, trimmed in white silk. She carried white carnations. She is a sister of Mrs. Brauer and Mrs. Raymond Carter.

Among the guests from a distance were Mrs. Brothers and Misses Brothers, from Newport News, the mother and sisters of the groom.

Concerning Miss Handy.

The Baltimore Herald of yesterday has the following mention of a house party, of which Miss May Handy is a member: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crozier are entertaining a house party this week at their country home, Upland, near Philadelphia. Their guests are: Mrs. Jesse Tyson, Miss Lota Robinson, both of this city. Miss May Handy of Pichmond, Va. ayson, Miss Lota Robinson, both of this city; Miss May Handy, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. James Brown Potter, of New York, and Mr. Alexander J. Shriver, Mr. Stuart Janney and Mr. William F. Lorente Mr. William F. William F. Lorente Mr. William F. William F.

At the Chamberlin.

CUT THIS OUT AND KEEP IT. You Will Want to Read this Story

WITH EDGED TOOLS,

BY HENRY SETON MERRIMAN.

. . ONE OF MERRIMAN'S STRONGEST BOOKS . .

Lieutenant Arthur Fuller, whose mar-riage to Miss Virginia Wise, the daugh-ter of Admiral Wise, was celebrated in New York Tuesday, is now at the

CHAPTER XXI.-CONTINUED.

It was on this ground, in front of the marching column before the sun had marching column before the sun had sprung up in its fantastic tropical way from the distant line of virgin forest. As he walked along the line, making a suggestion here, pulling on a shoulderrope there, he looked staunch and strong as any man might wish to be. His face was burned so brown that eyebrows and moustache stood out almost blond, though in reality they were only brown. His eyes did not seem to be suffering from the heaviness noticeable in others; altogether, the climate and the mysic breath of the Simiacine grove did not appear to affect him as it did nis companions. This was probably accounted for by the fact that, being chief of the hunters, most of his days had been passed on the lower slopes in search of game.

To him came presently Jack Meredith.

met."Beastly fluke," put in Meredith, with Chamberlin Hotel with his bride. The young couple will reside at Old Point.

Rear Admiral Wise is also at the Chamberlin with his family.

Thayer-Smith. Miss Ada Nathalis Smith, of Ohio, and Mr. Robert Henry Thayer, of Chicago, were married at noon yesterday in St. Paul's Church by the rector, the Rev.

Paul's Church W. Dr. Robert Strange.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer, after a honeymoon spent at Old Point, will return to "Builtleid," near Doswell's, in Han-to "Builtield," near Doswell's, in Han-over county, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Florence Smith, mother of the bride, and Mrs. C. H. Thayer, the mother of the groom, are guests at The Rich-mond, the wedding taking place from that popular hostelry.

that popular hostelry.

Missionary Meeting.

The Weman's Missionary Society of the Grace Street Baptist Church will hold its regular meeting this afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock. A full attendance is most earnestly requested, as this will be the last meeting before adjournment for the summer.

The Gossip of Society. Mrs. Jeannie Harrison Chalkley, who has been spending the past four months in Richmond, visiting her sisters, Mrs. Howard D. Hoge and Mrs. Dana H. Rucker, and her brother, Mr. John Q. Harrison, will leave Saturday, June 4th, to visit Dr. Edmund Harrison, in Groensborg, N.C. boro, N. C.

Mr. John Taylor, who has been visiting his parents in Appomattox, returned to the city early this week.

Mrs. J. H. Price, who is at St. Luke's Hospital, has just undergone a serious surgical operation with apparent suc-cess.

The Warrenton Virginian of Wednesday contained the following item of interest to the friends of Mrs. Matchett and Miss

Charrington, in Richmond:
Mrs. Matchett and Miss Charrington arrived at "Waverly" on Wednesday from Egypt. This is the first return of Mrs. Matchett to her old home since her marriage, Miss Charrington has been abroad since the first of the year. Their presence here will be a welcome sight to their many friends and admirers.

The Rev. J. Gray McAllister, of Farm-ville, Va., who, with his bride, has been visiting the World's Fair at St. Louis and several northern cities, is now spend-ing some time in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McAllister, of Cov-

Mr. and Mrs. McAllister will go from Covington to Warm and Hot Springs as the guests of the groom's uncle, Mr. W. M. McAllister, and his brother, Mr. J. T. McAllister.

McAllister.
They will then return to Farmville, and later come to Richmond, where Mr. McAllister will have charge of a chair in Union Theological Seminary

Mr. S. C. Stratton returned this week from several days spent in West Appo-mattox, Va.

Two of the most prominent lecturers at the Summer School of Methods, opening June 27th in Charlottesville, Va., will be Professor Edward Howard Griggs and Dr. Richard G. Moulton who will each have two dally periods.

Professor Griggs is one of the most popular summer school lecturers in the United States. Dr. Moulton is professor of literature and English in the Chicago University, and is considered to be without a peer as a lecturer upon Shakespeare and the Bible, the two subjects which will occupy his attention this summer. summer.

Many Richmond teachers are deeply in-terested in the School of Methods, and will improve their acquaintance with Professor Griggs and Dr. Moulton this

Miss Julia Grant will be at Henry Clay Inn, Ashland. Va., for the summer. Mrs. G. A. Davenport has gone to Eagle Mere, Pa.

Mrs. R. G. Scott, Mrs. Kitty Scott McGilvray, little Miss Grace McGilvray and Mr. Madison Scott will spend the summer months at Searsport, near Bar Har-

Mr. J. Fred. Wilson will visit Birming-nam and London, England, during the month of June.

Miss Lena Branch will spend June at Buckroe Beach Hotel, Hampton, Va.

The fourth annual open Virginia State his pleasant laugh.

Oscard contented himself with a denying shake of the head.

"Of course" he continued, with obvious determination to get it all off his mind, "I know as well as you do that you are the chief of this concern—have been chief since we left Masia—and I never want to work under a better man."

"He put his pipe back between his lips and turned round with a contented smile, as much as ray, "There, that is the sort of man I am! When I want to Say that sort of thing I can say it with the best of you."

"We have pulled along very comfortably, hiven't we?" said Meredith; "thanks to your angelic temper. And you'll deliver that packet of letters to the governor, won't you? I have sent them in one packet, addressed to him, as it is easier to carry. I will let you hear of us somehow within the next six months. Do not go and get married hefore I get home. I want to be your best man."

ore 1 get nome. I want to be you used man.

Oscard laughed and gave the signal for the men to start, and the long caravan deflied before them. The porters modded to Mercdith with a great display of white teeth, while the headmen, the captains of tens, stepped out of the ranks and shook hands.

Before they had disappeared over the edge of the plateau Joseph came forward to say good-bye to Oscard.

"And it is understood," said the latter, "that I pay in to your account at Lioyd's Bank your share of the proceeds."

Lioyd's Bank your share of the proceeds."

Joseph grinned. "Yes, if you please, presumin' it's a safe bank."

"Safe as houses."

Cos it's a tolerable big amount," setting himself into his boots in the manner of a millionaire.

"Lots of money-about four hundred pounds! But you can trust me to see to it all right."

"No fear, sir." replied Joseph, grandly. "I'm quite content, I'm sure, that you should have the-dingering o' the dibs."

As he mished-somewhat lamely, perhaps-his rounded periods, he looked very deliberately over Oscard's shoulder towards Durnovo, who was approaching, them.

Meredith walked a little way down the

Meredith walked a little way down the Meredith wasked I fille way down the slope with Oscard.

"Good-bye, old chap!" he said, when the parting came. "Good-luck. and all that. Hope you will find all right at home. By-the-way." he shouted after him, "give my kind regards to the Gordon's at Loango."

And so the first consignment of Simiative way seen from the plateau to the Guy Oscard was one of those deceptive nen who only do a few things, and do

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof. Charles Ellot

No. 200.

Little Billee.

BY WM. MAKEPEACE THACKERAY.

HERE were three sallors of Bristol City

Who took a boat and went to sea, But first with beef and captain's biscuits And pickled pork they loaded she.

There was gorging Jack, and guzzling Jimmy, And the youngest he was little Billee; Now when they'd got as far as the equator, They'd nothing left but one split pea.

Says gorging Jack to guzzling Jimmy, "I am extremely hungaree;" am continuous Jack says guzzling Jimmy, "We've nothing left, us must eat we."

Says gorging Jack to guzzling Jimmy, With one another we shouldn't agree There's little Bill, he's young and tender, We're old and tough, so let's eat he."

"O, Billy! we're going to kill and eat you, So undo the button of your chemie. When Bill received this information, He used his pocket handkerchie,

First let me say my catechism, Which my poor mammy taught to And North and South Amerikee zilng Jimmy, While Jack pulled out his snickersnee.

And down he fell on his bended knee; He scarce had come to the Twelfth Commandment,

This series began in The Times Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day, championship tennis tournament begins Monday, June 6th, at 4 P. M., on the courts of the Country Club at Elizabeth Beach. The tournament is given by the Country Club, and is held under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association.

In the ladier single entries is found the name of Miss Connie Evans, the daughter of the Rev. W. E. Evans, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. Everett Kider Meade, of Clarke county, who has been given the appointment of cadet-at-large to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, has passed his mental examination with much credit to himself and his friends, and will go next week to Annapolis to take his physical examination. At the time of his appointment Mr. Meade was at the University of Virginia preparing himself for a journalistic career in New York. He is the brother of Lieutenant Meade, who died serving his country in the Philippines.

Miss Annie Louise Reinhardt and Miss Myrtle Redford are visiting Mr. J. P. Rowe and family in Fredericksburg, Va.

Mr. W. Percy Tailaferro is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. P. Rowe, in Fred-ericksburg.

Mrs. L. Cunningham, an esteemed and popular resident of Hampton, Va., celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday Tuesday last in her home, on King Street. Friends and relatives who gathered to wish her many happy returns included: Mr. and Mrs. Marion Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Cunningham, Miss Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cunningham, Mr. Joseph Cunningham, Mr. Anna Coles Mrs. L. Cunningham, an esteemed and those few very well. In forty-three days he deposited the twenty preclous cases in Gordon's godowns at Loango, and pa'd off the porters, of whom he had not lost one. These duties performed, he turned his steps towards the bungalow. He had refused Gordon's invitation to stay with refused Gordon's invitation to stay with him until the next day, when the coasting steamer was expected. To tell the truth, he was not very much preposses-ed in Maurice's favor, and it was with a doubtful mind that he turned his stops tween Loango and the sea.

The room was the first surprise that awaited him, its youthful mistress the second. Guy Oscard was rather afraid of most women. He did not understand them, and probably he despised them. Men who are afraid and ignorant often do.

of the climate."

Guy Oscard, with the persopicacity of his sex, gobbled up the balt. "It is Durnoyo," he reflected.

"Oh, he is all right," he said; "wonderfully well, and so are the others—Joseph and Meredith, You know Meredith?"

Localiza was howeld the said; "and the said; "wonderfully was heart to the said; "wonderfully was heart to the said; "and the said; "

Jocelyn was busy with a vase of flow

Jocelyn was busy with a vase of flow-ers standing on the table at her elbow. One of the flowers had fallen half out, and she was replacing it—very carefully. "Oh yes," she said, without ceasing her occupation, "we know Mr. Meredith." The visitor did not speak at once, and she looked up at him, over the flowers, with grave politeness. "Meredith." he said, "is one of the most

"Meredith," he said, "is one of the most remarkable men I have ever met."

It was evident that this ordinarily taciturn man wanted to unburden his mind. He was desirous of talking to some one of Jack Meredith; and perhaps Jocelyn reflected that she was as good alistener as he would find in Loango. "Really," she replied, with a kindly interest. "How?"

He paised not because he found it terest: "How?"

He paused, not because he found it difficult to talk to this woman, but because he was thinking of something. "I have read or heard somewhere of a

"Yes."
"That describes Meredith. He is not the man I took him for. He is so wonderfully polite and gentle and pleasant. Not the qualities that make a good leader for an African exploring expedition—sh?"

Jocelyn gave a strange little laugh, which included, among other things, a

"I have read or heard somewhere of steel gauntlet beneath a velvet glove

towards the little ho

Mrs. Mabel Davis, of Norfolk; Mr. S. J. Costin, of the Eastern Shore.

Miss Emma Nye, who has been spend-ing the winter in Richmond, has left for her home in Radford, Va.

The Rev. Dr. Weston Bruner will de-liver the address to the graduating class of Roanoke Female College Monday next at 8:30 P. M.

Mr. Graham T. Blandy, of New owner of a very handsome estate in Clarke county, known as the "Tulleries," will spend a part of the summer there and make extensive improvements and additions to his house and grounds. Mr. Blandy is a well known stock broker

Mrs. Grove, of Page county, Va., will attend commencement week at Randolph-Macon College at Ashland, where her son, Mr. Elmer Grove, will graduate with the highest honors. Mrs. Grove will visit Miss Alice O'Neal in this city before her return home.

and club man.

Mrs. Henry Fitzgerald Lewis is visiting friends in Richmond before her return to her home in Bristol, Va.

The Rev. Father Charles Harrigan as-aisted Wednesday afternoon at the wed-ding of Miss May Rose Lyons and Mr. Richard Davis, of Norfolk, which took place in St. Paul's Catholic Chapel, Ports-mouth.

"And he has kept well all the time?

"And you—you have been, all right?
"Yes, thanks."
"Are you going back to—them?"
"No I leave to-morrow morning ex by the Portugose boat, I am going he to be married."

to him in case of emergency, but not otherwise. I shall, of course, still be in-terested in the scheme. I take home the first consignment of Simiacine; we have been very successful, you know. I shall have to stay in London to sell that. have a house there."

"And when did you leave them?" asked Joselyn, after her visitor had explained who he was. He was rather taken aback by so much dainty refinement in remote Africa, and explained rather hadly. But she helped him out by intimating that she knew all about him. "Il left them forty-four days ago," he replied,
"And were they well?"
"She la very much interested," reflected Oscard, upon whom her eagernass of manner had not been lost. "Surely, it cannot be that fallow Durnovo?"
"Oh yes," he replied, with unconscious curtness.
"Mr. Durnovo cannot ever remain inland for long without feeling the effect of the climate."

He was fumbling in his breast-pocket and presently he rose, crossed the room and handed her, quite without after thought of self-consciousness, a photo celyn Gordon looked smilling, bright young face,

"She is very pretty," she said, honest-

"Millicent," he said, after a little pause "Millicent is her name."
"Millicent?" repeated Jocelyn—"Millicent what!"
"Millicent Chyne."

Jocelyn folded the morocco case together and handed it back to him.

"She is very pretty," she repeated slowly, as if her mind could only reproduce—it was incapable of creation.

When he was gone the girl sat wearily "Millicent Chyne," she whispered, "What is to be done?"

WEAR THE BURK HIGH-CLASS APPAREL.

Thousands of Richmond's best and most fashionable dressers have acquired the habit years ago and stick to it faithfully. They have been thoroughly convinced that in this Elegant Clothing their every want and requirement is met to an equal degree of satisfaction as in the costliest products of exclusive tailors, whilst the "Maker-to-Wearer" proposition reduces cost to just half on equal qualities.

The habit of wearing the Burk apparel is easily acquired, because it appeals to the judgment of Quality and Economy. enabling fashionable and distinctive dressing at small outlay.

---SUITS AT---

$10.\tilde{\text{\omega}} to \tilde{\text{\omega}}20.\tilde{\text{\omega}}

the Harrisonburg Star of Wednesday,

the Harrisonburg Star of Wednesday, and says:

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Carrie Switzer to Mr. N. Wilson Davis, on June 9th, at the German Reformed Church, Harrisonburg. Miss Switzer is the daughter of Sheriff John A. Switzer, of Rockinglism. The groom is a well known engineer of the University of Virginia. He successfully engineered the putting in of the water system from Riven Rock to Harrisonburg several years ago, when others had said it could not be done, and is also well known professionally in this city, having gone over the proposed lines for bringing a new water supply to the city.

Miss Martha W. Lambert, of Atlanta, Ga., formerly of Richmond, who is vis-iting her sister, Mrs. Minor Thompson in Lynchburg, will attend the finals at the University of Virginia.

Miss Eleanor Carrington is visiting Mrs. Carrington Hubard, of Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Keene Langhorne are visiting Mrs. C. D. Langhorne at Mira-dor, Albemarle county.

The Helping Circle of the King's Daughters will meet to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Richard A. Talley, No. 314 North Twenty-sixth Street. As it is the last meeting before adjournment for the summer, every member is requested to be present.

Miss B. T. Gaulding has issued cards to the marriage of her niece, Miss Nannie Will Gaulding, to Mr. W. Ernest Turner, of Henrico county, to take place Wed-nesday morning, June 15th, at 12 o'clock, in the home of Miss B. T. Gaulding, No. 124 West Clay Street. Miss Mattie J. Tucker and Mr. Robert

Miss Mattle J. Tucker and Mr. Robert T. Longest were married last evening at 9 o'clock in the pariors of the Rev. P. A. Cave, pastor of the Third Christiqua Church. The attendants were Miss Lena Clarke and Mr. C. S. Whitlock. Mr. and Mrs. Longest will make their home in No. 612 North Twenty-seventh Street. The bridegroom is a popular employe of Cottrell's Saddlery Company. Mrs. T. S. Ayres, of Claremont, Va. a native of Paris, and former instructor of French classes in the Woman's Club of Peoria, Ill., expects to locate in Richmond next September for the purpose of

IN GAY GOTHAM.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

New York, June 2d.

At the wedding of Miss Edith Nathalie
Sible, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John
H. Sible, of Waterbury, Conn., to Mrs.
Buchanan Schley, ann of Admiral Schley, which took place Wednesday in the parlors of the Buckingham Hotel, the bride was attired in a princess gown of white subtle intimation that she rather liked no good pretending otherwise; but I can de nothing."

make you."

Jocelyn Gorden could not do this; and all the advanced females in the world, all the blue-stockings and divided skirts, all the wild women and those who pant for burdens other than children will never bring it to pass that women can say such things.

satin crepe, with trimmings of old lace and a vell of tulle fastened with orange blossoms, and had as her attendants the Misses May Johnson. Frances Jenkins Katherine Daniels, Floraline Dinlaney, Bessie Foarell and Katherine Daniels. The state of the fast of Baltimore, Md., June 2d.

Two Baltimore young men, prominent in social circles, married belies of. New York yesterday at the metropolis. Mr. Geo. Stewart Brown, son of Gen. Stewart Brown, of 24 West Biddle Street, this city, wedded Miss Susan Morton, and Mr. Hugh. William Jackson, son of former Governor E. E. Jackson, of Maryland, took to wife Miss Anna Dudley Hart.
The board of lady visitors to the Maryland Line Confederate Soldiers' Home, at Pikesville, will give a fete at the home to-morrow (Jefferson Davis's birthday, beginning at 1 P. M. In connection with the fete fifty-nine crosses of honor will be presented to as many old soldiers. The annual social affairs at the home are always thoroughly enjoyable, and as a rule society is present in force. The officers of the board of visitors are: Mrs. John P. Poe, president; Mrs. William P. Zollinger, treasurer; Mrs. William P. Zollinger, treasurer; Mrs. William P. Son Poe, Jr., corresponding secretary, Mr. and Mrs. Marburg, of Virginia, 4rs the guests of Mrs. Minna Davis at her home, No. 1389 John Street.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Glen Perine, the Misses Perine and the Messers Perine will close, their town house, No. 512 Cathedral St. today and reopen their country home, Homeland, on Charles Sireet Avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson, Miss Alice Patterson and Miss Mary Patterson closed their town house on St. Paul Street yesterday and reopened their country home, Roseland, on Merryman Avenue.

SOCIETY IN

NATIONAL CAPITAL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
At the wedding of Miss Edith Nathalies Sible, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sible, of Waterbury, Conn. I. Miss Miss Milded Stone, which took place wednesday in the parlors of the Buckingham Holes the parlors of A rosy avatar! They fain Would bless the future, solden grain That shall not feel, hid 'neath its feet, The cherry blossoms!

apan's poetic soul refrain-which every spring these frail flowers

The hats fashioned for smart weddings e large. When poke bonnets are used they do

The portrait, autograph and biographical sketch of Thackeray have already appeared in this series.

"Jerusalem, and Madagascar,

"Make haste, make haste!" says guz. There's the British flag a-riding at

With Admiral Napler, K. C. B." So Billy went up to the main topgal- So when they got aboard of the Admiral's,

He hanged fat Jack and flogged

Jimmee, When up he jumps-"There's land I But as for little Bill, he made him the captain of a Seventy-three.

The following paragraph is taken from Guy Oscard. Women do convey these small meanings sometimes, but one finds she asked, softly. "He did not look strong."

"Oh yes. He is much stronger than ha

"Indeed! Then I suppose you will wash your hands of Africa forever?"
"Not quite," he replied. "I told Meredith that I would be prepared to go up thought of self-consolved and graph in a morocoo case.

Explanation was unnecessary, and Jocelyn Gordon looked smilingly upon a

Whereupon Guy Occard grunted unin-

Oscard looked puzzled. Having risen the did not sit down again, and presently he did not sit down again, and presently he took his leave, feeling convinced that Jocelyn was about to faint.

"Nothing," she answered to herself af-ter a while. "Nothing. It is not my business. I can do nothing." She sat there—alone, as she had been all her life—until the short tropical twi-light fell over the forest Quite suddenly she burst true trans.

she burst into tears 'It is my business," she sobbed, 'It is ties from the frai.

Another somewhat singular residus left, as it were, in Jocelyn's mind when the storm of emotion had subsided was a certain indefinite tenderness for Millicent Chyne. She felt sure that Jack Meredith's feeling for her was that feeling vaguely called the right one, and as such unaitterable. To this knowledge the subtle sympathy for Millicent was perhaps attributable. But navigation with pen and thought among the shoals and depths of a woman's heart is hazardous and uncertain.

tain.

Csupled with this—as only a woman could couple contradictions—was an unpardonable abhorrence for the deceit practiced. But Jocelyn knew the world well enough to suspect that, if she were ever brought face to face with her meanness, Millicent would be able to bring about her own forgiveness. It is the knowledge of this lamentable fact that undermines the feminine sense of honor.

Lastly, there was a calm acceptance of the fact that Guy Oscard must and would inevitably go to the wall. There could be no comparison between the twy men. Millicent Chyne could scarcely hesitate for a moment. That she herself must likewise suffer uncomplainingly, inevitably, seemed to be an equally natural consequence in Jocelyn Gordon's mind. She could not go to Jack Meredith and say:

(To Be Continued To-marrow.)

SOCIETY IN

Where pine-girt shrines hear sea waves

THE SWEEPING HATS.

When poke honnets are used they do not attempt to follow the conventional model, for not one woman out of a thousand can wear such a hat. Leghorn and chip are preferred to slik, tulle on het, and plumes are still preferred to flowers, though the pompadour gown calls for wreaths of huge roses.

This style of hat should not appeal to the bride if she is to be married in a gimple and trig, unless she is quite young, when she can afford to wear the wide-brimmed, rough sailor in color, trimmed with ribbon or flowers with leaves.

If she is over twenty-five years old it would be in better tests for her to wear a smart elaborate straw toque, with some stimple trimming.

rensburg.

Former Senator and Mrs, Edward Mur-phy, Jr., and family left to-day for El-beron, N. J., where they will open their summer home.

JUNE BALTIMORE WEDDINGS

THE CHERRY BLOSSOMS. The cherry blossoms, like a rain
Of pink-white snowflakes, flood the lane
Where truant lads at noonlide meet,
And lovers, in the dusk, retreat,
To watch the moon's young crescent wane!

beat
And bells with tonal charm enchain
The cherry blossoms;
—William Struthers.

BURK & COMPANY,